

The California Dispute Resolution Council, “Your Voice for ADR in Sacramento,” is pleased to invite you to the award presentation of the Donald Weckstein Award for:

Distinguished Service in the ADR Profession to be presented to

DONNE BROWNSEY

The program, which will be presented via Zoom, on Tuesday, April 25, 2023, from 12 Noon to 2pm, will include a presentation by Jim Madison and Paul Dubow of their annually anticipated program:

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Year in Review,
an annual summary of legal developments in ADR.

This is a no-fee program, but registration is required. To register please click here: CDRC Event Registration

A Zoom link to the event will be provide to all registered participants two days prior to the event.

About the Presenters:

is a full-time mediator/arbitrator specializing in construction, employment, technology, real property, sports, financing, and other commercial cases. Jim is Past President of the California Dispute Resolution Council and a Fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators.

Paul Dubow is a full-time arbitrator and mediator practicing in San Francisco with emphasis on securities, employment, insurance, franchise, and commercial law matters. He is past president and co-founder of the Mediation Society of San Francisco; a past president of the California Dispute Resolution Council; and a fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators.

Please join us to celebrate Donne Brownsey and get a firsthand update on the status of ADR in California.

If you haven't renewed your CDRC membership, or would like to become a full member, you can do so by clicking this link:

Hon. Richard Flier,
President, CDRC